He stated that his monthly "juice" payment was $350.00 which computes to fourteen (14) per cent per month. On February 10, 1976, ESPOSITO told [redacted] that he wanted the debt paid off and was sending "some guys" over to collect. [redacted] stated that he felt threatened. [redacted] was advised to recontact the Chicago Division should ESPOSITO prove to be troublesome. As of instant date, [redacted] has not re-contacted the Chicago Division and efforts to re-contact him have been negative.

It is owned by [redacted]. [redacted] also stated that ESPOSITO is employed by a union and furnished the telephone number. A check of the number reflected that it is listed to the County Municipal Employees and Foremans Union, Local #1001, Chicago.

A review of the files of the Chicago Division revealed that the Tampa Division interviewed [redacted] on September 24, 1975, concerning ESPOSITO. [redacted] provided information that ESPOSITO was involved in the prostitution racket as early as 1967 and apparently as late as 1975.

The Chicago Division will continue to investigate subject's activities to determine if they constitute a pattern of racketeering. Chicago will keep the Bureau advised.
